

Alberta's legacy bears witness to an illustrious past,
an exciting present and a promising future.

Alberta today is a land of prosperity that stands amongst her sister provinces within the Confederation of Canada.

Nurtured by the initiative and hard work of her early pioneers,
Alberta was moulded into the great province that she is today.

As Albertans we are deeply indebted and appreciative of the courage and achievements displayed by our forefathers.

We take this occasion to express our gratitude to

E. R. ZAKARIASEN

in recognition of your contribution to Alberta's heritage of pride.
