CALL TO ORDER AND GREETINGS — From Manitoba.

O CANADA.

THE STAR SPANGLED BANNER

O say, can you see, by the dawn's early light,
What so proudly we hail'd at the twilight's last gleaming?
Whose broad stripes and bright stars, thro' the perilous fight.
O'er the ramparts we watch'd, were so gallantly streaming?
And the rocket's red glare, the bombs bursting in air
Gave proof thro' the night that our flag was still there.

Chorus —

O say, does the star spangled banner yet wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave.

SYMBOLS OF PEACE — Mr. D. G. McKenzie, Pres. I. P. G. I.

A SONG OF PEACE

Tune, Finlandia.

This is my song O God of all the nations,
A song of peace for lands afar, and mine;
This is my home, the country where my heart is,
This is my hope, my dream, my shrine;
My country's skies are bluer than the ocean,
And sunlight beams on cloverleaf and pine.

But other lands have sunlight, too, and clover,
And skies are sometimes blue as mine.

Oh, hear my song, thou God of all the nations,
A song of peace for their land, and mine.

A TRIBUTE — Mrs. Watt, a great Canadian, an International Leader.
(British Columbia.)

APPRECIATION — Mr. M. J. Tinline, Supt., I. P. G. I.

BAND SELECTION.

DEDICATION — Mrs. Nancy Adams, Pres. F. W. I. C.

PROGRAMME

THESE THINGS SHALL BE

(Canadian Youth Hymnal, No. 259, Tune Simeon.)

These things shall be; a loftier race
Than e'er the world hath known, shall rise,
With flame of freedom in their souls
And light of knowledge in their eyes.

They shall be gentle, brave and strong,
To spill no drop of blood, but dare
All that may plant man's lordship firm
On earth, and fire, and sea, and air.

Nation with nation, land with land,
Inarmed shall live as comrades free;
In every heart and brain shall throb
The pulse of one fraternity.

There shall be no more sin, nor shame,
Though pain and passion may not die;
For man shall be at one with God
In bonds of firm necessity.

THE MARY STEWART COLLECT FOR CLUB WOMEN

Keep us O Lord from pettiness; let us be large in thought, in word, and deed.

Let us be done with fault finding and leave off self seeking.

May we put away all pretence and meet each other face to face, without self pity and without prejudice.

May we never be hasty in judgement and always generous.

Teach us to put into action our better impulses, straight forward and unafraid.

Let us take time for all things: Make us grow calm, serene, gentle.

Grant that we may realize that it is the little things that create differences, that in the big things of life we are one.

And may we strive to touch and know the great human heart common to us all.

And O Lord God, let us not forget to be kind.

GOD SAVE OUR QUEEN
